It's so cool to be in school, especially when Stephen Fite is leading the way through your classroom day! From start to finish and beginning to end, Stephen will have you singing and dancing, but most of all learning. His shows have been described as an "interactive celebration of music and learning" and combine a solid hour of music and movement to hold the children's attention. So come join us and sing your way through Stephen's classroom day so that you can say, "I had a Funtastic Day with Stephen Fite!"
